

MetroForm Studio - Privacy Policy

Last Updated: May 31, 2025

Welcome to the MetroForm Studio website (www.metroform.studio). This Privacy Policy outlines how we handle information on our website.

1. Information We Do Not Actively Collect MetroForm Studio is primarily a portfolio and concept design showcase. We do not actively collect personal data from visitors browse our website, such as IP addresses (beyond standard server logs for operational purposes), browse history on our site, or other personally identifiable information, unless voluntarily provided by you. Our interactive features, including any chatbots, are designed for real-time engagement and do not store conversation data or personal information once the interaction is closed.

2. Information You Voluntarily Provide If you choose to contact us via our contact form, you will be asked to provide your name, email address, subject, and message. This information is provided by you willingly and will be used solely for the purpose of responding to your inquiry. We do not use this information for marketing purposes unless you explicitly consent, nor do we sell or share this information with third parties.

3. Cookies Please refer to our separate Cookie Policy for details on how we use cookies. In essence, any cookies used are for essential website functionality and basic anonymous analytics to improve user experience. We do not use cookies for tracking personal browse habits for advertising purposes.

4. Data Security While we do not collect extensive personal data, we take reasonable measures to protect any information you do provide (e.g., through the contact form) from unauthorized access or disclosure during its transmission and handling related to your inquiry.

5. Third-Party Links Our website may contain links to third-party websites (e.g., social media platforms, embedded video providers like Wistia). This Privacy Policy does not apply to these external sites. We are not responsible for the privacy practices of these third-party sites. We encourage you to review their privacy policies before providing them with any personal information.

6. Children's Privacy This website is not intended for children under the age of 13 (or a higher age threshold as required by local law), and we do not knowingly collect any personal information from children. Some materials available on MetroForm website can be considered adult in nature, which is always indicated.

7. Fictional Nature of Content All information, narratives, technical specifications, project descriptions, and depictions of androids (including but not limited to "Mika-X," "Alice-01," and "V.A.R.S."), robotic systems, AI capabilities, laboratory activities, and MetroForm as a manufacturing entity presented on this website are fictional and created for portfolio, entertainment, and stylistic concept design purposes. MetroForm Studio does not manufacture or sell real robotic products as depicted. The website is not intended to deceive or mislead any visitor into believing these fictional concepts are commercially available products for order. Any data or "research" regarding MetroForm androids or robots in general mentioned in articles, presentations, or annotations is largely used to support these fictional designs and may contain speculative elements; it should not be used as academic or reference material without independent verification.

8. Changes to This Privacy Policy We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Any changes will be posted on this page with an updated "Last Updated" date.

9. Contact Us If you have any questions about this Privacy Policy, please contact us via the information provided on our website.
